Selected Student Feedback on Teaching Effectiveness

❖ Principles of Microeconomics

“Brandon Restrepo was very helpful. He was very well organized and prepared. He really cared and made sure all students got all the information necessary and were able to adequately complete assignments. I think he did a great job as a teacher. I would definitely take another class from him in the future.”

“You are a gifted teacher and if this is a career path you plan on pursuing you will do extremely well and your students will benefit greatly. And your review sessions are the best I've ever attended. Thank you for taking the time and making the effort. I truly enjoyed your class.”

“Brandon is an excellent instructor of microeconomics. My girlfriend was also in an Econ 200 class this quarter, but did not have Brandon as an instructor. She was constantly asking me to explain things to her. I would show her the notes Brandon posted online for my course, which was a great help. I enjoyed having Brandon as my instructor for Econ 200 and want to wish him luck in the future. He will definitely make a great professor.”

❖ Current Economic Issues in the U.S.

“Brandon was an excellent instructor. Course was well organized with interesting topics. He brought in guest speakers from relevant fields, including a lecturer from the FDIC. He was also supremely knowledgeable about economics. I will recommend this course to other students as their second year writing course.”

“One of the only econ instructors who has been capable of making a class interesting. Legitimately interested in what he presents and that shows in his lectures.”

“Brandon is a very good lecturer that will only get better with more experience teaching. His love for Labour Economics really showed for his passion of teaching the subject to us in class. This was my first class that covered the topic of labour economics and it was a class that I enjoyed taking. Brandon is a very nice person who is really willing to go out of his way to help students if they had problems/questions. I really liked how Brandon structured the class, and actually (to my surprise) very much enjoyed listening and presenting the group presentations. Brandon is a very good teacher, a very smart individual, and there is only praise for him from this end. Thank you Brandon.”
